(1) the readiness and sustainability of the military forces of the United States in terms of the standards approved by the Secretary of Defense;

(2) the readiness and sustainability of allied forces of the United States; and

(3) the readiness and sustainability of potential enemy forces.

(4) A list of all improvements that need to be made in the readiness and sustainability of the manpower, mobility, and equipment of the Armed Forces to correct major shortfalls of the unified combatant commands and the specified combatant commands, the relative priority of each such improvement, and the estimated cost of each such improvement.

(5) Such other information regarding the readiness of the Armed Forces (in terms of manpower, mobility, sustainability, and equipment) as the Secretary considers appropriate.

(6) PRIORITY FOB IMPROVEMENTS.—The relative priority of the improvements referred to in subsection (bX4) shall be determined by the Secretary on the basis of the improvements necessary to ensure the ability of the Armed Forces to perform their assigned missions and the ability of the United States to meet its military commitments.

(7) SUBMISSION OF REPOBT.—The Secretary shall submit the report required by subsection (a), together with such comments and recommendations as the Secretary considers appropriate, not later than February 15,1990.

SEC 373. REPORT ON SECOND SOURCE FOR CARBONIZABLE RAYON YARN

(8) REPORT REQUIRED.—The Secretary of Defense shall submit to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives a report on the progress and schedule (including a time certain) for the Department of Defense to establish a certified second production source for carbonizable rayon yarn for use by the Department of Defense and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration on heat shields and rocket nozzles of reentry space vehicles.

(9) TIMS FOR SUBMISSION.—The report required by subsection (a) shall be submitted not later than 60 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

SEC. 374. REPORT ON MILITARY RECRUITING ADVERTISING EXPENDITURES

Not later than 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Defense shall submit to the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and House of Representatives a report evaluating—

(10) the results of using each of the types of media for military recruiting purposes; and

(11) the anticipated effects on military recruitment of devoting to print media advertising each year a greater portion of the total expenditures made in a year for recruitment advertising.